

10th Anniversary Celluloid Bainbridge Film Festival

March 15 & 16, 2008

The Historic Lynwood Theatre ~ 4569 Lynwood Center Road

Saturday, March 15 ~ 10 a.m. – 3:30 p.m

Sunday, March 16 ~ 10 a.m. – 8 p.m

Free! Donations benefit the Celluloid Bainbridge Filmmakers Finishing Fund

Saturday

10am. The Independent Film: Start to Finish. A presentation by Charles Oliver, screenwriter/director of Take.

11am. Six-Day Bicycle Race: America's Jazz Age Sport. Historical documentary. Jeff Groman.

Noon. Sentenced Home. Documentary on U.S. immigration and deportation policies. Nicole Newnham.

1:15pm. Shadow of the Salmon. Docudrama on Native American and Pacific Northwest environmental issues. Three Sixty Productions.

2pm. Poetry Is! Bainbridge Island Poets in Performance. Kent Chadwick: Language at Melting Point; Janet Norman Knox and Van Calvez: TV Dinner with Van & Jan.

Sunday

10am. Film and the Law: Panel Discussion by Washington Lawyers for the Arts.

Noon. Celebrating the Pike Place Market. Historical documentary. Michael Yaeger.

12:35pm. Charles Wilkes and the United States Exploring Expedition. National History Day documentary. Luke Jensen.

12:50pm. Seattle Kids Arirang. Documentary featuring Alice Mendoza's Wilkes Elementary students. KOAM TV.

1:10pm. Shifting Currents. Eagle Harbor High School students' documentary on the Elwah River dams.

1:30pm. Robots of the Sea. Bainbridge High School students' underwater robot project. John Williams.

1:50pm. Peter Spencer Plays the Garden. Music documentary. Charlie Bermant.

Sunday films (continued)

2:20pm. Kyle: In Search of the Ultimate Shot . . . Short feature. Sean Leonard.

2:30pm. Of Spring. Animated fairytale. Michaela Hauschultz.

2:40pm. Only on Bainbridge. Island life captured in ten short films.

3:15pm. Over the Years: San Carlos Annual Poetry Reading. A wild look back at 20-some years of this annual poetry event. Karen Perry.

3:50pm. Bainbridge in the Seventies Preview. Documentary on Bainbridge culture in the 1970s. Scott Taylor.

4:10pm. This is My Family. Kitsap County school children explore the meaning of “family” through original artwork and interviews. The Picture Project/Steven Stolee.

4:30pm. Cooking with Corene. Family documentary. Steven Stolee.

4:45pm. Have I Got a Witness. Documentary on post-Hurricane Katrina New Orleans. Ben Greené.

5:35pm. 48 Hour Film Contest Winners: Lethal Coalition: Cory Kelley, Sean Roach, Cathy Bellefeuille; Old Goats: Taylor Guterson; Game Over: Sam McJunkin.

5:55pm. Engagement. Comedy short. Steven Fogell.

6:25pm. Birth of a Salesman. Comedy short. The inspiration for the first Celluloid Bainbridge. Scott Taylor.

6:30pm. Quiet City. Narrative feature. The paths of two twenty-somethings cross late at night on an empty NYC subway platform, and from this chance encounter an unlikely connection is formed. Aaron Katz.

Celluloid Bainbridge is a program of the Bainbridge Island Arts & Humanities Council. Check the BIAHC website, www.artshum.org, for Celluloid Bainbridge schedule updates and other information or call 206.842.7901.